did he walk quietly and leisurely, or did he run? If so, where did he run? He hurried and practically ran towards his home, as I told him I would gather his things and bring them along.

Did you return to the house with him? - I followed right away, after gathering up his tackle.

What conversation did he have with you? He talked about the possibility of getting a train, and found he would be able to catch an afternoon train to New Brunswick if he hurried.

Did he tell you where he was going? yes. He said he was going to New Brunswick.

How long was he occupied in preparing to go? Long enough to pack his grip and change his clothes.

Did he make any arrangements with you as to whether you were to occupy his house that night? yes. He said as he had to leave hurriedly and there was no one at home, would I spend the night at his home. I spent several nights there alone, until Mrs + Miss Griffin returned.

Have you ever seen Mr. Stevens drive an automobile? If so, what make of an automobile was it? yes - a Ford.

Was it his Ford Station Wagon? yes.

Did you ever see him drive any other automobile? no.

Did you ever see him drive a gear-shift automobile? no.

Have you ever seen him in Mrs. Stevens car prior to September 14th, 1922? If so, who was driving? Not that I remember.

Will you please state anything else which occurs to you that you have not stated in answer to the foregoing questions.
